My Apology Document...

ATTENTION! THIS DOC WILL BE PRIVATED AND DELETED IN 5 DAYS! PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO READ THIS DOC, THANK YOU!!!

Hi... if you're reading this document... I'm going to apologize for the disgusting things I've done to minors... it sounds wrong... and I'm sorry to StarTheCat, Retro-Cat, and HF2011 for stealing yall's OC's... i thought i had alternated the OC's enough so it wouldn't be an issue... but I failed to do that... and I shouldn't have done this... I feel terrible for doing that... I've also been having a rough time with my family... and it doesn't help the fact that I turned into the creep that I am now... I promised to change... and I keep failing.. I had moved on from doing this... Until everything was brought back up again... I opinion bashed StarTheCat's eyestyle too harsh... I wish I had kept my words to myself a long time ago... And worst of all... I wish I'd never made NSFW of Leonor's OC... And I had made a fool of myself... I am not smart... all of this was my falt... and I wish I could change everything... but it's too late now... I hade been struggling with working on my small farm due to my PTSD... My parents never take me to therapy at all... And I had learned my lesson already... I was never meant to be predatory... And a creep.. And I was also aware about Libra being a guy... But I didn't want to tell them that because I didn't want them to be mad at me...

(oh and also, if you do block me, then i'll find a way to send the link to your mother. just sayin. either it's that or you decide to admit that you did all of this stuff)

Also, I'm admitting fault for everything I had done... I'm really sorry to everyone that we're involved with my bullshit... and again I'm extremely sorry to StarTheCat, Retro-Cat, and HF2011 for stealing your OC's, I'm going to make sure none of what I have done will ever repeat again... It is time to move on... I feel extremely bad about this... And I finally realize what I have done and I'm taking full accountability for the actions I have done that caused distress and had broken trust to people... I will be taking a break from the internet for quite some time to rethink my actions... I will not contact anyone mentioned in this dock that does not want to hear from me… I will be reconsidering my behavior and not make the same mistakes again going forward… I will still respond to comments… But extremely rarely… To none… I am going to try and turn my life around and try to reshape my future… so that this never happens again…
